

SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE

INDUSTRIAL APPLIED DATA SCIENCE

Lugano Convention Centre, 18-19 October 2018

Hosted by SUPSI, Department of Innovative Technologies

In order to address the growing influence of Industrial Applied Data Science on many aspects of our lives, FTAL, the Association of Swiss Schools of Engineering, Architecture and Life Sciences, is organising a scientific conference focusing on industrial applied research outcomes produced by Universities of Applied Sciences in this highly topical field.

This research event is jointly organised by all the Universities of Applied Sciences of Switzerland and aimed at Master students, professors and research scientists, as well as industrial partners. The goal of the conference is to showcase the research and technology transfer activities in Data Science of Universities of Applied Sciences, to increase knowledge exchange within the FTAL “Research Community” and to facilitate networking between researchers, MSE/MSLS students, industry and international institutions.

Main topics:

- ✓ Industry, Production and Logistics
- ✓ Energy and Environment
- ✓ Life Sciences and Healthcare
- ✓ Finance, E-Commerce and Blockchain Technology

Highlights:

- ✓ Poster Session and Oral Paper Presentations
- ✓ Two internationally renowned Plenary Speakers, acknowledged authorities in the areas of ICT and Life Sciences
- ✓ DataScience@UAS Session and a discussion panel on the foundation of an FTAL research community in Data Science

Important dates:

- Paper and abstract submission: 31 May 2018
- Author notification: 15 July 2018
- Early-bird registration: 31 July 2018

Website: www.ftal-conference.net

Paper submission:

- Papers and posters must be electronically submitted on the conference website. Papers and posters can be submitted only by students and researchers from a Swiss University of Applied Sciences. Abstracts should not be longer than 2 pages (font: Arial 12), including references and author's picture (min. 300 DPI).
- Posters will be presented in the Conference Poster Session while papers will be delivered orally. Accepted abstracts will be printed in hardcopy in the conference booklet and also published online. A post-conference book will be published with selected peer-reviewed articles.
- In the case of multiple authors, at least one of the authors should register and attend the conference to present the work.
- Best Poster Award: The best poster will be voted on by the conference participants.
